

ArchiFest 2010

Local Architects / Local architecture

An exhibition of works by local AIA architects, with food, drinks, and movies about architecture
Presented by the American Institute of Architects Huron Valley Chapter
Tuesday, October 5, 2010 at the Michigan Theater
603 East Liberty Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48104
Doors open at 6:00 pm Admission $5

Movies begin at 6:30 pm

A Girl is a Fellow Here

Over 100 women architects, designers, and artisans worked with Frank Lloyd Wright.
This is the story of how six of those women went on to distinguished careers of their own.
15 minutes / Beverly Willis / www.bwaf.org

Ping Pong

Frank Gehry and a furniture manufacturer go back and forth during the design and fabrication of Gehry's six-pound chair.
23 minutes / Eames Demetrios / www.eamesdemetrios.com

Yestermorrow NBI 2009

The construction of a straw bale and timber frame building in Warren, Vermont.
6 minutes / Ed Dooley / Mad River Media / www.madrivermedia.com

Angle of Inspiration

Santiago Calatrava's Sundial Bridge over Turtle Bay.
30 minutes / Mill Valley Film Group / www.mvfg.com

Tour of the Glide House

A prefabricated, sustainable house is ready to go anywhere.
5 minutes / Michelle Kaufmann / National Building Museum / www.nbm.org

Lucy's House

Samuel Mockbee's Rural Studio designs and builds several structures, including a house in Alabama using stacked carpet tiles for walls.
18 minutes / Eames Demetrios / www.eamesdemetrios.com

Presented with support from DunnBlue Reprographics

